² Some degree programmes also require proof of a specific language level (e.g. English B1, B2 or C1). You can always find these and other specific requirements on the info pages of the respective degree programme.

³ You must tell us whether you have already studied at other universities, and if so, where and for how long.

⁴ If you have previous study periods at another German higher education institution, you must upload the following documents:

Clearance certificate: This is a certificate that states whether or not you have lost the right to take examinations in your degree programme at other universities. The certificate is usually issued by the examination offices. Sometimes this information is also available on the transcript of records.

Performance certificate with all passed and failed examination performances: The certificate must be up to date (i.e. close to the time of application) and provide information on all achievements taken, including attempt count and ECTS information.

Link to the module handbook: Please provide us with the link to the module handbook of your degree programme(s) that you studied at Worms University of Applied Sciences before applying. This is only necessary if you have also completed coursework.

Exmatriculation certificate: If you have already exmatriculated from a university, please upload a corresponding certificate. If you have not yet exmatriculated, it must be uploaded as soon as possible in the case of admission to Worms University of Applied Sciences, but at the latest by the end of the first semester. Of course, you can wait for the result of the admission procedure until you exmatriculate at your current university.

Note: The requirement to provide proof does not apply if you have applied for a degree programme that is taught exclusively in English.

⁶ If you are applying with a foreign educational qualification, i.e. you did not acquire your higher education entrance qualification in Germany, you are required to pay a certificate processing fee of €25.00 in accordance with the State Fee Ordinance. The fee must be paid once for all applications submitted, regardless of whether you are applying for one or more degree programmes. Should you have an official recognition of your home educational certificates including the grade conversion, you are exempt from this fee - important: please attach this certificate recognition to your application.

Please note that your application will only be processed once the deposit slip has been submitted.

The fee must be paid within the application period, otherwise your application cannot be considered for the selection procedure.

Please transfer the certificate processing fee to the following account and upload the proof of payment directly to the online application:
